JOHNSON ANNOUNCES RESIGNATION OF CIA CHIEF

Prague RUDE PRAVO 19 June 1966--A

(Editor's Note) RUDE PRAVO carries a 300 word CTK Washington dispatch reporting President Johnson's press conference of 18 June and his statement on U.S. policy in Vietnam. With regard to the change in the CIA leadership the paper says: "Johnson made a surprise announcement of the resignation of the director of the American intelligence agency--CIA--William Raborn, and his replacement by Richard Helms, a former high-ranking officer of the Pentagon and deputy director of CIA since 1947."
